IChemE Journal Archive

The Journal Archive is the complete collection of chemical and process engineering research, published in IChemE's journals between 1923 and 1996. Key features include:

- content from three leading journals:
  - Chemical Engineering Research and Design – formerly the Transactions of the Institution of Chemical Engineers (1932–1996)
  - Process Safety and Environmental Protection (1990–1996)
  - Food and Bioproducts Processing (1991–1996)
- easy access to over 4,000 original articles
- over 70 years of peer-reviewed research
- fast searches by volume, author and keywords across the full text of every article
- multiple payment options for flexibility – outright purchase, subscription and pay per view

Access and pricing

Article highlights

The Journal Archive contains a number of different article types, including research papers, review papers, conference reports, legislation reports, European Federation of Chemical Engineering news, and editorials. Here's a selection of highlights from the collection:

A Critical Review of Published Experiments on Filtration

(AJV Underwood, 1926)

Fluid Flow through Granular Beds

(PC Carman, 1937)

The Mixing of Solid Particles

(PMC Lacey, 1943)

Sedimentation and Fluidisation

(JF Richardson and WN Zaki, 1954)

Kinetics of Liquid-Film Process in Gas Absorption

(PV Danckwerts and AM Kennedy, 1954)

An X-Ray Study of Bubbles in Fluidised Beds

(PN Rowe and BA Partridge, 1965)

The Development of Non-Precious Metal Based Catalyst for NO<sub>x</sub> Removal from Automobile Exhausts

(SPS Andrew, 1976)

Overall Site Optimisation by Pinch Technology

(B Linnhoff and AR Eastwood, 1987)

The Social Acceptability of the Chemical and Process Industries

(VC Marshall, 1990)

Short-Term Scheduling of Pipeless Batch Plants

(CC Pantelides, MJ Realf and N Shah, 1995)
