Post-event Awards

A. Article Honorarium (RM200 cash prize)

1. POPSIG welcomes the applications from undergraduates and postgraduate students.

2. The competition's theme of "Beyond Palm Oil: Connecting Life" reflects the many facets of palm oil's sustainability challenges and opportunities in the environmental, social and governance aspects covered in the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The suggested contents are sustainable processing, heat recovery, utility efficiency, efficient oil extraction process, circular economy, life cycle analysis, carbon footprint, water footprint, waste to wealth, biodiversity or any other sustainability-related topics.

3. In your article, please ensure it fulfils the following requirements:

   a. Font size required is Times New Roman, 12pt, 1.5 spacing.

   b. The main content pages must be A-4-sized, with margin 2.54 cm for all top, bottom, right, and left (Normal Margin under MS auto function).

   c. The main content pages must be fully text only, and maximum of 8 pages. Word counts should be around 800-1,500 excluding references.

   d. Pictures, tables, graphs, artworks with caption should be included in the Appendix section, which does not have limitation on the number of pages.

4. If a committee member of POPSIG participates in this competition, he/she has acknowledged that the participant must disclose any conflict of interest.

5. The article must be original and have not been previously submitted or published. POPSIG only considers one application per submission.

6. The applicant must submit the completed online form and the article that must be in the form of Microsoft Word or Microsoft Project.

7. The deadline of the submission is 14 days after the event date (talk/forum). For example, talks session was on 01 February 2023, then the deadline of submissions is on 15 February 2023.

8. The article will be evaluated and decided by the Editorial Team of POPSIG.

9. The recipients of the Honorarium will be announced after two months from the closing date of application. The recipients will also be contacted by email and announced on IChemE POPSIG website and social media.

10. Each recipient will be given a Certificate of Recognition issued by POPSIG. The delivery of Honorarium will primarily be informed through email.

11. If you encounter any issue with the submission, or you have any specific questions about the competition. Please do not hesitate to email to popsigmalaysia@gmail.com

12. Registration is free of charge.

13. IChemE is a registered charity.

Register & submit at: https://forms.gle/xrAMi34bSQpCV1SQ7

B. Infographic Competition (RM200 cash prize)

1. POPSIG welcomes the applications from undergraduates and postgraduate students.

2. The competition's theme of "Beyond Palm Oil: Connecting Life" reflects the many facets of palm oil's sustainability challenges and opportunities in the environmental, social and governance aspects covered in the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The suggested contents are sustainable processing, heat recovery, utility efficiency, efficient oil extraction process, circular economy, life cycle analysis, carbon footprint, water footprint, waste to wealth, biodiversity or any other sustainability-related topics.

3. In your infographic, please ensure it fulfils the following requirements:

   a. Participants is allowed to use any software or online application, such as Microsoft Excel, Canva, Piktochart, Venngage, Visme, etc. to produce the infographic.

   b. Include a title, authors, and contact information (department, affiliation, and email address) at the top of the infographic.

   c. Keep any write-up brief.

   d. Effective use of graphics (charts, pictures, and tables), colour, and font. The use of bullets, numbering and headlines make it easy to read.

   e. Organize the presentation so that is clear, orderly, and self-explanatory.

   f. The infographic should be submitted in both PDF and picture file (800 width $\times$ 2000 height pixels with the file format of PNG or JPG).

4. If a committee member of POPSIG participates in this competition, he/she has acknowledged that the participant must disclose any conflict of interest.

5. The infographic must be original and have not been previously submitted or published. POPSIG only considers one application per submission.

6. The applicant must submit the completed online form and the infographic (in both PDF and PNG/JPG files)

7. The deadline of the submission is 14 days after the event date (talk/forum). For example, talks session was on 01 February 2023, then the deadline of submissions is on 15 February 2023.

8. The infographic will be evaluated and decided by the Editorial Team of POPSIG.

9. The recipients of the Honorarium will be announced after two months from the closing date of application. The recipients will also be contacted by email and announced on IChemE POPSIG website and social media.

10. Each recipient will be given a Certificate of Recognition issued by POPSIG. The delivery of Honorarium will primarily be informed through email.

11. If you encounter any issue with the submission, or you have any specific questions about the competition. Please do not hesitate to email to popsigmalaysia@gmail.com

12. Registration is free of charge.

13. IChemE is a registered charity.

Register & submit at: https://forms.gle/xrAMi34bSQpCV1SQ7

C. Video Competition (RM200 cash prize)

1. POPSIG welcomes the applications from undergraduates and postgraduate students.

2. The competition's theme of "Beyond Palm Oil: Connecting Life" reflects the many facets of palm oil's sustainability challenges and opportunities in the environmental, social and governance aspects covered in the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The suggested contents are sustainable processing, heat recovery, utility efficiency, efficient oil extraction process, circular economy, life cycle analysis, carbon footprint, water footprint, waste to wealth, biodiversity or any other sustainability-related topics.

3. In your video, please ensure it fulfils the following requirements:

   a. Include a title, authors, and contact information (department, affiliation, and email address) at the beginning of the video.

   b. Subtitle must be included.

   c. Appealing to the audience with well structure content.

   d. Overall presentation is able to communicate and engage with the audience on the topic of discussion.

   e. Overall visual and audio quality. The video orientation can be portrait or landscape.

   f. The video must be saved in the following format Flash video (.flv), Window media (.asf), MP4 (.mp4) or QuickTime (.mov) files.

   g. Video duration must not go past 5 minutes long.

   h. Video size must be within 1 GB file size.

4. If a committee member of POPSIG participates in this competition, he/she has acknowledged that the participant must disclose any conflict of interest.

5. The video must be original and have not been previously submitted or published. POPSIG only considers one application per submission.

6. The applicant must submit the completed online form and the video.

7. The deadline of the submission is 14 days after the event date (talk/forum). For example, talks session was on 01 February 2023, then the deadline of submissions is on 15 February 2023.

8. The video will be evaluated and decided by the Editorial Team of POPSIG.

9. The recipients of the Honorarium will be announced after two months from the closing date of application. The recipients will also be contacted by email and announced on IChemE POPSIG website and social media.

10. Each recipient will be given a Certificate of Recognition issued by POPSIG. The delivery of Honorarium will primarily be informed through email.

11. If you encounter any issue with the submission, or you have any specific questions about the competition. Please do not hesitate to email to popsigmalaysia@gmail.com

12. Registration is free of charge.

13. IChemE is a registered charity.